

feel the magic of true dance

Code of Conduct

Students are expected to participate at their fullest potential, follow directions and be considerate and respectable of students and teacher.

Parents are welcome to observe class anytime. Parents are advised to apply the discretion on the total timings for their observation so that the class is not disturbed. Siblings are also welcome to watch for some time without disrupting the class. Sampada's Dance Studio may occasionally use pictures of students in the class or at performances on their web site or other advertisement use.

Dance is a physical activity and like any other sports, an injury may occur during lessons or performances. Student should not damage the premises of it's studio (generally these are hired venues). Any damage done by the student to the dance studio property or it's belongings would be borne by the student and his parents. Student/parents are also responsible for informing the instructor of any prevailing physical limitation which may prevent the student full participation in the class.

Indemnity Agreement

I acknowledge and agree that my participation in the Dance Classes is completely voluntary and I acknowledge and accept all risks and assume full responsibility for all therisks, including but not limited to the risks identified in this Indemnity. I acknowledge and accept full responsibility for all property damage, bodily and personal injury and any other untoward incident to me or my children.

Course Fee Policy

Regular classes course payment is due on or before the first day of each month. Workshop course payment is due prior to the start of the workshop. Missed classes & tuition payments are not refundable. However, if the students has informed in advance for skipping two or more classes, we would accept the partial payment. Each student who would be performing will need to purchase costumes as per the performing group's requirements. The fee would be subject to change with advance notice.

I hereby agree with Sampada's Dance Studio policy and indemnity agreement and I am freely enrolling myself / my child for learning dance with Sampada's Dance Studio.
